General

What could be more beautiful? The irresistibly picturesque Geul river, the marvellous Ingendael wildlife reserve, our own extensive parks, stylish baroque gardens, a farmhouse herb garden, a standard-tree fruit arboretum, and a rose garden – features that as such have given rise to the reputation of the Château St. Gerlach as the most famous country estate in the area of Maastricht. The history of the country estate dates back to the twelfth century. Since 1997, the Château has been the home of a hotel and restaurant that offer guests lavish hospitality in a historic setting – and situated in the midst of an extraordinarily beautiful landscape.

Hotel Château St. Gerlach

The hotel is located in the magnificent former tenant's courtyard on the estate. The 58 rooms and suites are individually decorated and equipped with five-star amenities. The hotel also has 39 spacious apartment suites available, which are ideal for larger families or groups. These apartments can also be rented out as individual hotel rooms, in which case they provide 54 very luxurious single or double rooms. The comprehensive breakfast facilities available in our garden pavilion enable visitors to admire the authentic herb garden and the pastoral landscape. The hotel also offers a convivial lounge with an open hearth and a cosy bar.

Bistrot de Liège

Baron de Selys de Fanson was St. Gerlach's last resident; his kitchen, dining room and reception room have now been transformed into the cosy Bistrot de Liège. The original rugged paving stones, the antique stove and an original Liège-style pantry in the open kitchen are responsible for much of the Bistrot's unique ambience. Guests visiting these informal surroundings will be treated to a menu de la semaine, light dishes from the region, or simply a cup of coffee.

Apartment suites

In addition to its standard hotel rooms, Château St. Gerlach can also offer guests planning a longer stay accommodation in one of its 39 large to very large hotel apartment suites. These suites may well prove particularly appealing to groups of four people, or to guests with young children. Each apartment suite comprises a living room, a bedroom, a bathroom and toilet. The senior apartment suites have an additional twin bedded bedroom with a private bathroom. Almost all the suites also have their own balcony or terrace.

Restaurant Château St. Gerlach

Three reception rooms in the living quarters of the aristocratic family that used to live in the Château now accommodate a top-quality à la carte restaurant. Each room is furnished in its own distinctive manner, and in full harmony with the original painted walls and ceilings. The comprehensive menu is oriented towards French cuisine – and our renowned wines form the perfect complement to the culinary art of our kitchen staff. On sunny days, the splendid patio is particularly appealing to diners. Six stylishly furnished rooms offer marvellous surroundings for festive and business gatherings for groups from 5 to 300 guests.

Kneipp Spa & Babor Centre
Cosmétique

Naturally, our guests are also welcome to make use of the indoor Roman swimming pool, sauna and Turkish baths – all at no extra charge. The Netherlands has only one specialised Kneipp Health Spa, which is located in the vaulted cellars of Château St. Gerlach's former family chapel. A spa treatment comprises a variety of different types of baths, showers and water massages, some of which make use of therapeutic herbs. The exclusive treatment in the Babor cosmetic centre constitutes nothing less than a lifestyle treatment. First class, style and superior quality are the keywords characterising the treatment.

Surroundings

The St. Gerlach estate is less than 10 km from the city centre of Maastricht (is chosen as the best city of the Netherlands), a byword for exuberant living with its cheerful open-air cafes, exclusive shopping quarter and around 1590 historic buildings and monuments. A variety of tourist routes featuring places of interest for walkers, cyclists and drivers are available from the hotel reception.
